Equivalent mechanisms apply to transfers from the UK and Switzerland.

7. Cookies and browser storage

Terms of Participation – Capital Growth Summit

Last updated: Oct 29, 2026

1. Organizer

The Capital Growth Summit ("Summit") is organized by Opalesque Global Services LLC ("Opalesque"), 244 Fifth Avenue, Suite #G268, New York, NY 10001-7604, U.S.A.. These terms apply to registration for and participation in the Summit's live sessions, replays and materials.

2. Registration

Registration for live sessions is free. You register individually for each session you want to attend. Join links are personal; please don't share them. We may decline or cancel a registration that is clearly false, automated, or from a competitor collecting attendee information.

3. VIP Pass

The VIP Pass costs USD 99 and gives replay access to all Summit sessions, whether or not you registered for them, plus a transcript and checklist for each session. Access runs for as long as we operate the replay library, and for at least 12 months from the end of the Summit.

Right of withdrawal for consumers. If you buy as a consumer in the EU or UK, you normally have 14 days to withdraw. Because the VIP Pass is digital content made available immediately, you lose this right once access begins, provided you expressly agreed to immediate access and confirmed you understood that you would lose your right of withdrawal. All VIP Pass sales are final. We do not offer refunds, except where required by law or as set out in Section 9.

4. Recordings

Sessions are recorded. Questions and chat messages you submit may be read out and appear in recordings and transcripts. The Privacy Policy explains how we handle this and how to stay anonymous.

5. Use of content

Session content, recordings, slides, transcripts and checklists are protected by copyright, owned by Opalesque or by the individual speakers. You may use them for your own professional learning. You may not record, copy, redistribute, resell or publish them, in whole or in part, or share your VIP access, without our prior written consent.

6. Conduct

Please keep questions and chat professional and on topic. No promotion of your own funds or services in the chat, no harassment. We may remove messages or participants that break these rules.

7. No investment advice

The Summit is educational. Sessions reflect the views of the speakers, which may differ from those of Opalesque, as of the date of the session, and may change without notice. Nothing presented is investment, legal, tax or accounting advice, nor an offer or solicitation to buy or sell any security or interest in any fund. Any data or figures come from sources believed to be reliable but are not verified by Opalesque. Forward-looking statements are opinions, not predictions you can rely on. Past performance is not an indication of future results.

8. Audience

The Summit is designed for investment professionals, fund managers, investors, entrepreneurs and their advisers. Speakers do not market or offer specific investment products in their sessions.

9. Changes and cancellation

We may change the programme, times or speakers. If a session is cancelled or moved, we will notify registered attendees by email as soon as possible. If the Summit as a whole does not take place, VIP Pass buyers receive a full refund.

10. Third-party links

Sessions and materials may link to other websites. We have no control over them and are not responsible for their content.

11. Liability

We are liable without limitation for intent and gross negligence, for injury to life, body or health, and where mandatory law provides. For slight negligence we are liable only for breach of essential obligations, limited to the damage typical and foreseeable for this kind of contract. Otherwise our liability is excluded. Technical disruptions in your own equipment or internet connection are outside our responsibility.

12. Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of the State of New York, without regard to its conflict-of-laws rules. The state and federal courts located in New York County, New York, have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising from these terms. If you are a consumer, this does not take away the protection of mandatory laws of your country of residence, or your right to bring proceedings in the courts there.
